Library Staff Members Attend Illinois Library Association Conference

On October 8, Library Director Susi Ludwig-Ruppert, Colleen Keleher, and Meta Mazur attended the Illinois Library Association Annual Conference in Peoria.

They spent the morning in the vendor and display area gathering information and materials that will help provide even better library services for Galena Public Library patrons.

In the afternoon they attended a rally for Illinois Secretary of State and State Librarian Jesse White. They had the opportunity to meet Mr. White and have their picture taken with him. During the Conference Mr. White endorsed the campaign to secure the future of Illinois libraries. He noted that libraries are struggling to cope with unprecedented usage while facing budget cuts. He told the Illinois library community to ask legislators to take a pledge to oppose any additional cuts to library per capita grants in Fiscal Year 2010.

The three librarians met Michael Piper the new director of the Prairie Area Library System (which serves Galena and northern Illinois). They also were present at the Conference Awards Ceremony where Bob McKay, former Director of the Prairie Area Library System, received the 2009 ILA Librarian of the Year Award.
