The Galena Library will exhibit the original paintings featured on the covers of the Galena Mystery Series. The books and paintings are the creation of local artist and author, Sandra Principe. The paintings will be on display in the Library's main reading room from July 15 through August 31. Additionally, the five foot tall painting featured on the cover of the fourth mystery, Murder at Galena Gallery, will be on display at the Galena State Bank's main office on Gear Street for the months of July and August. Principe settled in Galena after practicing law in Chicago for twenty years. Since moving to Galena, she has written five mysteries set in Galena and had shows of her paintings in galleries in Florida, California, Texas, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Illinois.
